Chattering Stories

"Stories that stay in your head long after you have finished reading them . . . Chattering is utterly compelling and expresses what it is like to be deaf—especially when you're also young and reckless—in a way I have never read or understood before."

Chattering: Stories: Stern, Louise: 9781847081773: Amazon ...

A touching yet somewhat unsettling collection of short stories revolving around the themes of communication (or a lack thereof) and isolation. These stories don't spoon feed the reader - some don't have a sense of denouement, but that suits the characters and situations about which they were written.
